A message from the Principal

Welcome back to term 3. I hope everybody had a safe and enjoyable school holidays, ready to be the best learners that we can be. This term is already overflowing with busy activities and is looking to be a fantastic term here at Salt Ash public School.

NAIDOC Day

On Wednesday 25th July, we will be celebrating NAIDOC week. Students will participate in many activities including Aboriginal music, weaving, stories, tools and wood painting. Students are welcome to wear red, yellow and black clothing however need to remember that there are to be no singlets or thongs/sandals worn and a broad-brimmed hat is still required. I was lucky enough to attend NAIDOC celebrations at Raymond Terrace during the holidays. I even bumped into a few of our students having fun on the rides and attractions there.

Student-Led Conferences

Student-Led Conferences will take place during Education Week 6th—10th August. These take the place of traditional Parent-Teacher interviews. Students will lead a 3 way conference with their parents/carers and teachers, showcasing work they are proud of, taking ownership of their learning. Parents will be able to celebrate these successes with their child and set future goals. Each teacher has been assigned a specific day to conduct their conferences.

- K/1F—Monday 6th August
- 1/2N—Tuesday 7th August
- 5/6C—Wednesday 8th August
- 3/4S—Friday 10th August

Two notes will be sent home today; an information note and a booking note. Please return the booking note ASAP as conference times will be allotted on a first in best dressed basis.

Public Speaking Finals

Public Speaking Finals will be held on Friday aft the conclusion of the assembly. Four stage representatives will 'speak off' for a place in the Zone finals in week 2. Two students from each stage will be selected to progress to the zone finals.

Premier's Spelling Bee

The Spelling Bee will be conducted in classrooms on Tuesday 31st July. Parents will be notified of students who will be going through to the next round.

PBL

Congratulation to Chloe Bowden who was our Community PBL recipient for the last week of term 2. Chloe was presented with her award by Federal Member of Parliament for Paterson, Meryl Swanson for “organisational skills at Raymond Terrace Bowling Club . After her team had finished playing she packed away all of their equipment.” Well done Chloe.

MarketPlace Performance

During Education Week on Thursday 9th August, K/1F, 1/2N, the choir and dance group will travel over to Raymond Terrace MarketPlace to perform items to showcase Salt Ash Public School. Buses will transport the students to a from the performance. More information including performance times will be made available soon.
